

Quiz on Platypuses

Fill in the blanks.

1. The platypus is a _____.
2. The platypus is a warm-blooded and _____ mammal.
3. Mammals who lay eggs are called _____.
4. It is found only in _____.
5. The platypus's thick fur is _____.
6. The platypus stores _____ in its tail.
7. Fat helps it _____ when food is limited.
8. Platypuses live in _____.
9. A male platypus has _____ on its _____.
10. The spurs hold _____.
11. Platypuses spend about _____ a day resting.
12. Platypuses are great swimmers. They usually remain about _____ underwater before they come up for air.
13. Platypuses are mainly active at _____.
14. Their sensitive bills have _____ to navigate.

venoms night spurs Asia 2 minutes Australia egg-laying fat 2 hours mammal bird burrows ankles waterproof 17 hours 5 hours electroreceptors survive monotremes

Quiz: Platypus

ANSWER KEY

1. The platypus is a mammal.
2. The platypus is a warm-blooded and egg-laying mammal.
3. Mammals who lay eggs are called monotremes.
4. It is found only in Australia.
5. The platypus's thick fur is waterproof.
6. The platypus stores fat in its tail.
7. Fat helps it survive when food is limited.
8. Platypuses live in burrows .
9. A male platypus has spurs on its ankles.
10. The spurs hold venom.
11. Platypuses spend about 17 hours a day resting.
12. Platypuses are great swimmer. They usually remain about two minutes underwater before they come up for air.
13. Platypuses are mainly active at night.
14. Their sensitive bills have electroreceptors to navigate.