

WRITING: Elephants

Write what you know about elephants.

The diagram consists of a central rounded rectangular box containing a photograph of an elephant with a single tusk. Six lines radiate from the central box to six surrounding rounded rectangular boxes, each containing three horizontal lines for writing. The boxes are arranged in a circular pattern around the central image.