

Plural or Possessive Nouns - 1

Read the sentences below. Fill in the appropriate noun.

1. The _____ crayons are colorful. (sisters, sister's)
2. The _____ have three crayons. (girls, girl's)
3. The _____ pencils are thin. (boys, boy's)
4. The _____ shared pencils and pens. (brothers, brother's)
5. The _____ erasers erased perfectly. (girls, girl's)
6. The _____ cookies were tasty. (boys, boy's)
7. The milkshakes made by the _____ were sweet. (girls, girl's)
8. The _____ made crackers that were delicious. (boys, boy's)
9. The _____ scissors were sharp. (girls, girl's)
10. The _____ supplies were handy. (teachers, teacher's)
11. The Halloween costumes for the _____ were cute. (girls, girl's)
12. The _____ dresses were creative and beautiful. (girls, girls')
13. The _____ knitted sweaters for the holidays. (girls, girl's)
14. The _____ played soccer in the field. (athletes, athlete's)

Plural or Possessive Nouns - 2

Read the sentences below. Fill in the appropriate noun.

1. The decorations for the _____ were grand. (castles, castle's)
2. The pancakes that the _____ made were delicious. (boys, boy's)
3. The markers that the _____ used came in many colors. (girls, girl's)
4. The donuts made by the _____ were yummy and sweet. (boys, boy's)
5. The _____ love to eat sushi. (boys, boy's)
6. The _____ shoes were shiny in the sunlight. (girls, girl's)
7. The _____ knitted sweaters for the holidays. (girls, girl's)
8. The _____ love toward their children was unconditional.
(parents, parent's)
9. The _____ enjoyed to build sandcastles. (boys, boy's)
10. The _____ each owned two cats and one dog. (girls, girl's)
11. The _____ costumes were vibrant. (clowns, clown's)
12. The _____ office had a lot of documents. (doctors, doctor's)
13. The _____ were very flexible. (acrobats, acrobat's)
14. The _____ cooked deliciously. (cooks, cook's)